IFSL PUBLICATIONSCITY BUSINESS SERIES

The City Business Series brings together, for the first time within one publication, statistics on the size and structure of each sector or activity, as well as their contribution to national output, employment, and net exports. International comparisons and shares of world markets are included where possible. The Series therefore meets the widely recognised need to have data on individual financial and business sectors available on a systematic basis, and has the strong support of private sector firms and institutions and public sector bodies.
